

Fort Randall, Theater
(Navy Town, Theater)
North of Jackson Lake on California Boulevard
Navy Town, Fort Randall
Cold Bay
Aleutian Islands Division
Alaska

HABS No. AK-46-C

HABS
AK,
I-COLBA,
I-C

PHOTOGRAPH

WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA

Historic American Buildings Survey
National Park Service
Department of the Interior
Washington, DC 20013-7127

HABS
AK,
1-COLBA,
1-C-

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

FORT RANDALL, THEATER
(Navy Town, Theater)

HABS No. AK-46-C

Location: North of Jackson Lake, on California Boulevard, Navy Town, Fort Randall, Cold Bay, Aleutian Islands Division, Alaska

Present Owner: Department of Defense

Present Use: Demolished in 1985 as part of the Department of Defense Environmental Restoration Program.

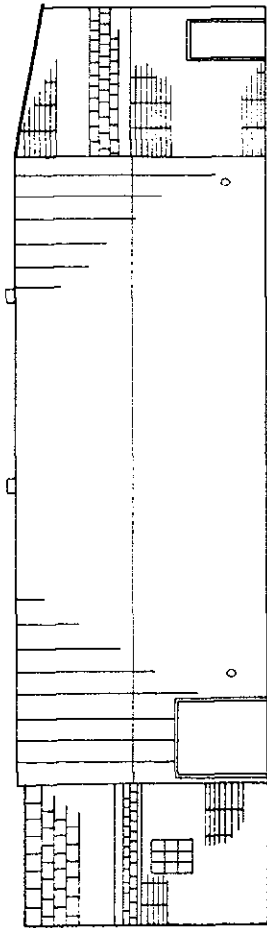

Significance: Constructed by the Navy in 1942, this building was by 1984 the last remaining theater constructed of steel gauge and wood frame units. Theaters and recreation halls were constructed at the Aleutian bases to foster good morale among the military personnel serving there.

Project Information

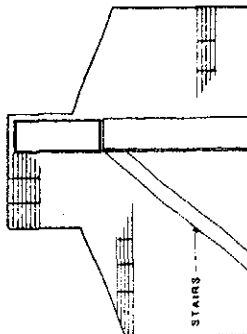

Prepared by: D. Colt Denfeld, historian
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Alaska District
January 25, 1985

Edited and transmitted by: Holly K. Chamberlain, historian
HABS
March, 1988

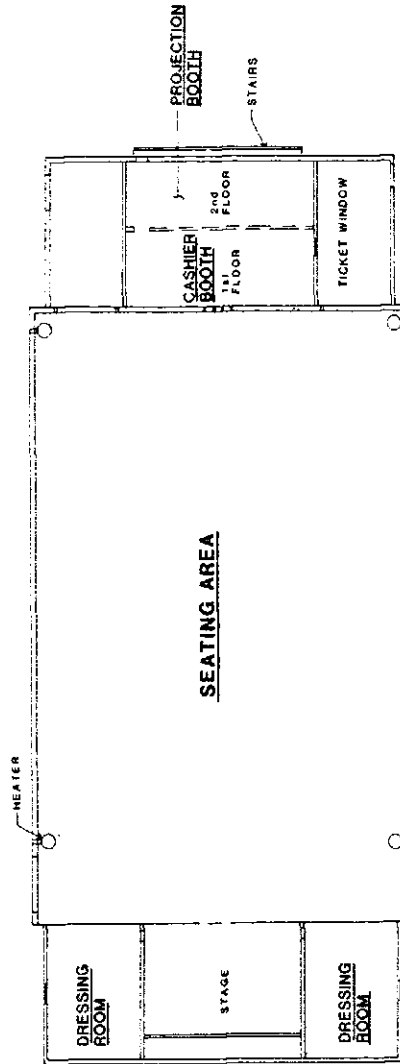

COLD BAY, ALASKA
DEFENSE ENVIRONMENTAL RESTORATION
ALASKA DISTRICT
UNITED STATES ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS
100'-220' SOUTH OF WEST OF JACKSON LAKE
NAVY TOWN, COLD BAY, ALASKA
MOVIE THEATER
HISTORIC AMERICAN
BUILDING SURVEY
SHEET 2 OF SHEET 4

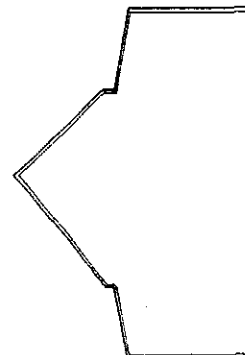

SIDE ELEVATION

EAST ELEVATION

FLOOR PLAN

WEST ELEVATION